

Olave 2019 News

www.olave.org.uk

1st Brede Rainbows arrrr pirates for the day!

WET AND WILD: WATCH OUT ITS A PIRATE!

Rainbows and Brownies from across Girlguiding Sussex East County joined us for the day to take part in reenactments, meeting birds of prey, and music and dance all while raising money for the RNLi on the Guide run stalls.

The sounds of the brass band blew across the site as a sound track to all the other activities, such as taekwondo and swoove, inflatable slide, circus skills, Sussex Bonfire Torches and much more.

Overheard at Olave

Guide: [Flying a kite] "The wind sucks."
Two Leaders: No the wind blows!"

Happy Birthday!
Abigail, 16, Ranger Rays. Larissa, 11, Black Pearl. Lea, 10, Golden Sands. Kamara and Camesha, Pink Flamingos. Helen, Golden Sands. Emmeline, Rainbow Fish.

Recycling & Rubbish

Green octopus' live up to their name being the best at recycling so far. Please remember to separate rubbish and recycling on your sub camp.

WEATHER

Met Office: 19° 12°
Wednesday 31st July
Sunny and breezy.

NOTICES

Ocean Commotion: Please take your mug with you for activities.
Coral Reef: And bring any plastic bottles for craft please.
Lost property: please pick up at admin.
Remember to take your rubbish with you.

JOKE OF THE DAY

What's orange and sounds like a parrot?
A carrot!

Open day Gallery

A wet and windy day didn't dampen our spirits as Rainbows and Brownies visited Blackland Farm for Olave 2019.

Greek Guides display their traditional dances

Also here today...

were Girlguiding LASER Region Chief Commissioner, Deputy Chief Executive of Girlguiding, Mayors from Lewes, Crowborough, Hastings and Uckfield, The Vice Lord Lieutenant, The High Sheriff of West Sussex, Girlguiding Sussex East County President, The Manager of Blacklands, Chair of LASER Region Trefoil Guild and Girlguiding Sussex Central County Commissioner.

Sunset and Stars: Wednesday

Sunset and stars activities on Wednesday: widegame, campfire songs in The Wave (selected subcamps), bungee trampolines at the top of Larks, board games in the dining room, craft and sport at coral reef, badge swapping in the Pier Cafe, and at kingfishers (weather dependent): spider mountain, water zorbs, crazy golf, disc golf and cave bus.

WANT TO WRITE FOR THE NEWSPAPER?

Contribute an article, photo or drawing (you can use the postcards at the Beach Hut Studios).

MAKE YOUR OWN PODCAST AT THE BEACH HUT STUDIOS

Pop along to the Beach Hut Studios to record a podcast, or record your interview with an Olave Pearl about their first time at camp.

Opening times: Wednesday 4pm - 8.30pm

